

Walnut Tree

Hello,

Some on here may know that a house in Much Hadham has what is reputed to be the oldest and largest Black Walnut tree in its garden. It is also supposed to have an ancient crack willow amongst other veteran trees. I won't name the house.

Does anyone know whether they allow occasional visitors to view the trees? I'm a member of the Woodland Trust and Tree Register and would love to get a photograph.

Many Thanks

Greenman
