Does anyone know who I should contact to ask for something to be printed in the Much Hadham Parish Magazine? Thanks

I believe that items for the magazine can be left at the house that is next to the Village Hall, if you are standing outside the Village Hall in the middle of the road and looking straight at it, it would be the house that is to the immediate right of the Village Hall.

Alternatively you can email articles to Diana Scholefield at scholefield@thehadhams.co.uk

Anyone know why the Parish magazine does not allow advertisements in it? A lot of other parish mags I've seen do have ads for local businesses in them - as its a good source of income to cover production costs of the mag and to help local charities etc.

As someone who's business is based in Much Hadham, I - and I'm sure other local businesses would love to be given the opportunity to advertise in the parish magazine.

You would be very welcome to advertise in the Little Hadham Parish News. e-mail hftp@clocktower.co.uk.
