

Jabez uncle

I'm trying to find out a little more about Jabez. He features in the Hadham's headlines book and it mentions that he only has one hand. At Hertford I've found another couple of small crimes but because the family seem to have been labourers there is no address on the census for him. He was born in 1814, married a Mary Ann Anson(?). Does anyone know if any 'Uncle's@ are still around?
